

Cogan Ophthalmic History Society

15th Annual Meeting April 5-7, 2002
Harriman, New York

Friday, April 5, 2002

- 3:00 PM Check-in at the Arden Conference Center
- 6:30-7:30 PM Cocktail Reception – East Room
- 7:30 PM Dinner – Dining Room

Saturday, April 6, 2002

- 7:00 am Buffet Breakfast – Dining Room

SESSION I Arden Conference Center Auditorium

Moderator: Virginia Keeney

- 7:50 AM Welcome. Introduction of guests.
Ronald S. Fishman

- 8:00 The Badianus Manuscript
Andrew Ferry

- 8:20 Dating of Spectacles by Daguerreotypes
John W. Tull

- 8:40 Babbage the Unfortunate
Richard C. Keeler

- 9:00 When Your Eyes Are a Wet Nose: The Evolution of the Use of Guide Dogs
Gerald A. Fishman

- 9:20 Professor Ishihara and his Test for Color Vision
H. Stanley Thompson

- 9:40 Break

Moderator: John Flynn

- 10:10 Edward S. Harkness
Max Forbes (by invitation)

- 10:30 Early 18th century Debates on Cataract and Glaucoma by the French Royal Academy of Sciences
Robert F. Heitz

- 10:50 Bashar Assad and the Syrian Succession. Is the Characterization, »Mild-Mannered Ophthalmologist«, Accurate?
David Riefler

- 11:10 Rembrandt's »The Eye Operation«

Daniel M. Albert

11:30 What Did Dr. Kevorkian Do Wrong?
Bruce Jennings (by invitation)

11:50 Lunch – Dining Room

1:00 PM Business Meeting (Members)

SESSION II Auditorium

Moderator: William C. Glew

1:30 Reminiscences of my three professors; Cogan, Adler, and Scheie
Melvin G. Alper

1:50 Ophthalmology at Mount Sinai Hospital; A Brief History
Ira Eliasoph

2:05 Escher and the Ophthalmologist
Michael F. Marmor

2:25 Edwardian Snowblindness – Ophthalmic Travails in the Arctic and Antarctic
David C. Bisno (by invitation)

2:45 Video Presentation

3:00 Break

Moderator: Gordon Klintworth

3:20 Ridley and Other IOLs in Philadelphia
Charles Letocha

3:40 A Short Guided Tour Through Sir Harold Ridley's Attic:
Some Revisions of Ophthalmic History
David J. Apple (by invitation)

4:00 Introduction of the Snyder Lecturer
Stan Truhlsen

4:05 The Snyder Lecture: Early American Spectacle Makers
J. William Rosenthal

4:45 End

6:30 PM Cocktails – East room

7:30 PM Banquet – Dining Room

Sunday April 8, 2002

7:00 AM Buffet Breakfast – Dining Room

SESSION III Auditorium

- Moderator: Walter C. Griggs
- 8:00 Landmarks in the Development of Fluorescein Angiography
Patrick J. Saine (by invitation)
- 8:20 Clinical Trials in Medicine and Surgery During the Civil War
Richard W. Hertle
- 8:40 Did Theodore Roosevelt Have a Detached Retina?
William Tasman
- 9:20 Ancient Egyptian Lenses Assessed at the Louvre: II The Statue of »Le Scribe Accroupi«
Jay M. Enoch, Robert Heitz, et al.
- 9:40 The Sympathetic Ophthalmia of James Thurber
James G. Ravin
- 10:00 Observations on the Language of Medicine
V.K. Raju
- 10:15 Break
- Moderator: William Frayer
- 10:30 Historical Notes on Concepts of Normal Ocular Kinematics
Robert S. Jampel
- 10:50 Homage to Dr. Albert von Pfluck and His Collection of Coins, Tokens and Medals Depicting Spectacles. Part Two.
Jay Galst
- 11:10 Head Tilts and Face Turns: The Life and Times of Alfred Bielschowsky (1871-1940)
Norman B. Medow
- 11:25 Von Siebold: The Father of Western Medicine and Ophthalmology
in Japan
Danny H.-Kauffmann Jokl
- 11:45 Thus Saw Zarathustra: The Eyes and Brain of Friedrich Nietzsche
Ronald S. Fishman
- 12:00 END